(COPY FOR CARSON ROBISON
KNICKERBOCKER HOTEL
NEW YORK CITY)

January 18, 1933.

Mr. Ray Hubbell,
American Society of Composers,
Authors and Pub.,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Ray:

Will you please me as to the status of Carson Robison's application for membership. I have known Carson Robison for a number of years, and he has written a very huge quantity of songs, some of which I have published and many of which are publicly performed constantly, both here and in England.

If he is not yet a member, I would respectfully submit to the Membership Committee that he is very very deserving of membership in our Society; that he is able and capable, and that he is not a fly-by-night writer who will write one or two or ten songs and quit, but will, no doubt, write hundreds of more songs in his time, and if has not yet been made a non-participating member he certainly deserves that and an immediate promotion to the active class.

I am submitting this for the benefit and information of the Membership Committee.

All best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Louis Bernstein
